This Sunday, we hear Jesus gently saying to us, "What I say to you, I say to all: "Watch!" (Mark 13:37) Should we not do what he wants us to do? It is for our good, our benefit, our happiness and our fulfillment. We are watchful on the road for our safety and for the safety of other passengers on the road. How much more should we be watchful in our earthly life in order to merit eternal life? As we begin this sacred season of Advent, let us listen to what Jesus says to us, not only in the church but also at home and our work place.
