Listening to Indigenous Voices, a resource published by the Jesuit Forum for Social Faith and Justice explores Indigenous worldviews, examines the history of colonization, and concludes with sessions on righting relationships, decolonization, and indigenization. This resource seeks to bring groups together in a process of dialogue on the history and issues facing Indigenous Canadians in the spirit of truth and reconciliation. Using these books as a guide, participants would meet for 11 sessions for discussion on the content of this resource. Each session includes questions to guide sharing circles. We invite you to organize small groups within your parish. If parishes are interested in organizing small group discussions around this resource please contact Gorett at pastoralservices@archkingston.ca or 613-548-4461 ext. 112.
